FILE.

On Sunday morning, June 19, a fire was discovered on the roof of A. H. Carnes' house, 3 miles south of Bloomingville, and before the fire could be got out, the roof was partly burned off. The loss will be paid by the Boston Dwelling House Insurance Company. The fire was occasioned by sparks from the kitchen chimney.

Professor Dan Danahy, a candidate for State Senator, was in the city on Monday making acquaintances with the Hocking Democrat. Our candidate, Oliver Wright, took him in charge, and introduced him to delegates and statesmen, impressing on the mind of the Fairfield aspirant that the Haw ester of Hocking is a gentleman, and knows how to practice the proprieties.

At the last examination, held June 18th, there were 27 applicants, of whom the following were successful: Allie Schooley, for 2 years; Frank Adcock, Gertrude Baker, May Clark, Minnie Fickell, Eva Culp, W. A. Griffith, Jennie Gage, Linda C. Fink, Emma Ogile, Nina O'Neil, Tressa Martin, George Snook and R. S. Sullivan, for 1 year.

J. W. Filing, Sec'y.

The school exhibition given at the Soc's creek school house, three miles south of town last Saturday evening was a success. Quite a number of young folks from this city went down. Chas. Weis, A. Motherwell, Gus Shorr, Ed. Weis, and G. Hill assisted the local talent and rendered some very pretty vocal music for the occasion.

Mr. Ed. Guernsey, telegraph operator at the Hocking Valley office in this city, went out to Forest Rose Cemetery, Thursday evening, to attend to his father's grave and lot, and was found unconscious near the grave, some time afterwards by Sexton Valentine Hooker, and brought to the city. He was revived with some difficulty by medical assistance, but is still lying in his condition, arising from heart trouble.—[Lancaster Gazette.]

Uncle Dan Acker is no relation to Jack Freeman's grandmother, but he has that good old woman's taste on color. The story goes that when the new house was built on the old Freeman farm, and the neighbors "fall came in, and the question was raised as to the color of the house. Grand mother was called properly in convention, and asked for her opinion. With that demureness which characterizes her ancestry, the old lady said: "I don't care what color you paint it, so you paint it Red." So it was painted, and stands a model of beauty in color, with walls of red, yellow, and the intense Sweet Williams, beautifying the yard. Uncle Dan, with a like taste, paints his house red. It is the prettiest colored house in town, and builders and painters should go and see it before applying the modern and tedious colorings on their houses.

John Slisher wants the public to know that the Beer Garden has been trimmed up and put in good shape and will be opened on Saturday evening next. The best of Beer, a free lunch of roast pig and the Hock-hocking Band will be among the attractions.

Col. Lew Green, of the Hocking Sentinel, is engaged in sinking a common, every day, go-as-you-please well, and has issued a cordial invitation to his brethren of the press to be present at the corner stone laying. Lewis intimates that it would be an epoch in the annals of Hocking county, if he should strike water.—Zanesville Signal.

Our Band Was There!

The Hock-hocking band, of Logan, complimented this office with a grand serenade, last Monday, which was highly appreciated, and they will accept our thanks.—Circleville Democrat-Watchman.

Sizes Him Up.

The Lancaster Gazette sizes up the unknown man of our county about right, as follows: "F. Welby, of near Maxville, has been swindled by a lightning rod man to the extent of $300, but he kicked and compromised the matter for $80. He probably belongs to the class of fellows who think $1.50 per year is too much to pay out for a newspaper."

The Way It Happens.

The Knox County Democrat, started Mr. Vernon, by a few dissatisfied Democrats, to run on the Mt. Vernon Banner, the old Democratic paper, has suspended after twenty-one weeks' existence. It takes longer in some cases than others, but the result is generally the same.—Herald.

Hon. C. H. Buerhaus, the representative from Hocking county, and nominated at the Democratic primary election last Saturday, for re-election, by a large majority, was in this city last Monday, shaking hands with old friends and renewing former acquaintances. He was accompanied by his wife. This city is Carl's birthplace.—Circleville Democrat-Watchman.

JULY RACES.

McArthur, Ohio, will on the 4th and 5th of July, have some grand sport in the way of racing of all kinds, consisting of trotting, pacing and running races. Also, a fine program of amusements will be offered, consisting of foot racing, bicycling and novelty races of all kinds. The speed program is an excellent one, providing for four races each day, with the liberal premiums offered in each, ranging from $100 to $200 each, cannot fail to bring good horses. Messrs. McGrath & Hook, Managers of the Southern Ohio District Fair, have control of the races and letters of inquiry should be directed to them at McArthur, O.

The Hocking Valley Railroad will issue tickets one fare for the round trip from Logan to McArthur on the 5th of July.

OBITUARY.

John Harvey was born July 27, 1825, and died June 13, 1887, in the 63rd year of his age. His sufferings were at times severe, but he bore them patiently and with resignation by constant prayer. A Christian sister, a short time before his departure, asked him if his peace was made with his Savior, he raised his eyes toward Heaven, smiled and said: "Yes." Five of his children preceded him to the heavenly home, and a wife and six children are left to mourn their loss. Mr. Harvey was respected by all who knew him. A large concourse of people attended his funeral and listened to a sermon by the writer, at Ebenezer Chapel, after which his remains were deposited in the cemetery near the church. J. F. WILLIAMS.

GRAND PICNIC.

There will be a picnic in 1 mile of Black Jack Falls, on the head of Pine Creek, which is southwest of Logan, on the 4th of July, consisting of a good platform dance; also to the great resort consisting of rocks and cave, which are great curiosity to tourists. All are respectfully invited to attend. Accommodation of all kind will be on the ground.

By order of COMMITTEE.

A Deserved Complaint.

Our young friend, G. W. H. Wright, of Logan, one of the most talented young men of this section, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Senator in that district. Oliver Wright is a gentleman of ability and worth, and we know of no one in that district who would acquit himself more creditably or with greater distinction in the Ohio Senate than Mr. Wright. We, in common with his many friends in the district, hope to see him placed on the ticket.—[New Lexington Democratic Herald.]

The Blue and the Gray.

By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of iron have fled,
Where the blades of the grave-guns
Sleep in the ranks of the dead;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue;
Under the other the Gray.

These in the gloom of glory,
Those in the gloom of defeat;
All with the battle-blood gone,
In the dusk of eternity meet.
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue;
Under the other the Gray.

From the silence of sorrowful hours
The desolate mourners go,
Loathly laden with flowers,
Alike from the friend and the foe;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue;
Under the other the Gray.

So, with an equal splendor,
The morning sun-rays fall,
With a equal impartially tender,
On the blossoms blooming on all;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue;
Under the other the Gray.

So when the summer caldeth,
In the forest and field we find,
With an equal warmer falseth,
The cooling drip of the dew;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue;
Under the other the Gray.

Silly, but not without meaning,
The generous tears were shed;
In the storm of the years that are fading,
No longer battle was waged;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue;
Under the other the Gray.

Obituary.

Mr. George Adam Lertz, a son of Nicolaus Lertz and his wife, Eve Elizabeth was born on the 1st of February, 1822, at Niedernstein, Germany. On the 6th July, 1848, he was joined together in holy wedlock with Susannah Bernhart. This union was blessed with 3 children, five of them having preceded to their eternal home. He died June 7, 1887, at his residence in Logan of paralysis of the heart, aged 64 years, 4 months and 7 days. Mr. Lertz was a devout Christian, an active member of the Lutheran Church, an upright and respected citizen beloved by all. He lived in the faith of the Son of God, hence he is blessed, for "blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." His funeral took place Friday morning, on Friday, June 10th, at 10 o'clock, at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church on Mulberry street, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn his loss.

The most merciful God and Father blest these his sorrowing servants with the consolation of His grace and fill their hearts with the soothing balm of His love and be their aid in the midst of this dark night of grief, and fulfill unto them His blessed promise of good from all things to them that love him.

A K.

A correspondent of the Adelphe Border News writing to the editor of that paper last week says:

A more enjoyable and social event has rarely, if ever, taken place than that held at the residence of Alexander McClelland, near South Perry, on Friday, June 3d. He, on that day, passed the 80th, mile post of the journey of his life.

The whole affair was superintended by his children and grandchildren, who spared no pains to make it what it was, a success. The feast of good things was grand, the table loaded to its utmost capacity, and your correspondent being one of the number to partake of the good things, I would not have exchanged places with Grover. I stayed until I had unbutton two buttons of my vest and fell back in good order.

Alexander McClelland was born June 3rd, 1807, being 80 years old and has lived on the old homestead all of his life, without making a move. It would be hard to find a case similar to this one. He raised on his farm six sons and one daughter, all being residents of Hocking and Pickaway counties, except one son who lives in Charleston, Ill. The children present, John A. and family, James H. and wife and daughter, Samuel and family, Salem and wife, Susannah McDowell and husband, William E. and family, and Charles and family.

Those being present, six sons, one daughter, sixteen grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and a number of other near relatives and friends, all hoping that our father may live to see many occasions of this kind.

St. and Railway points, July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, good to return on any train July 6th, at one fare for the round trip, thus giving their patrons a chance to visit friends and relatives at comparatively small expense. Time of trains and any additional information apply to nearest C. & O. R. Co. Agent.

LITERARY NOTES.

Can the red man be civilized? An affirmative answer to this question seems to be given in an article entitled "Melakchah," by Z. L. White, which will be published in the July number of the American Magazine. A tribe of Indians, the Melakchah, on the Pacific coast, has been transformed according to this account, into an orderly, industrious and thrifty community.

DARING TRAIN ROBBERY.

St. Louis, June 18.—A special from Houston, Tex., gives the particulars of a bold train robbery on the Southern Railway, near Schenley, on the 12 o'clock train morning. The train drew up to the station, two men armed with revolvers forced the engineer to pull the train out on the prairie to where a fire was burning, around which stood eight men, armed with Winchester rifles.

Two of the robbers stood guard over the engineer while the others went through the train, roused the sleeping passengers, and robbed them of money and valuables. Wells, Fargo and Co's express car was also robbed and the mail pouches cut open and their contents stolen. Not less than $10,000 was secured. The robbers escaped, and the whole country is aroused and posess have gone in pursuit of the thieves.

Posterity vs. Ancestry.

It is no longer questioned, it is admitted that the body of man is improving. The children of to-day are better formed, have better muscle and richer minds than our ancestors. The cause of this fact is due to the general use of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic than any other source.

Five Men Buried Alive.

ERIE, Pa., June 20.—The bank of a fifty foot cutting for a gas reservoir in the bluff facing, the bay at the foot of Peach street, caved in to-day while the workmen were laying a brick foundation in the excavation. Jacob Sell, Daniel Hanley, John O'Laughlin, James Elsie and Jacob Fehrenbach were buried. A rescue party dug them out in the presence of 5,000 people. Sell, Hanley and O'Laughlin were taken out alive but senseless and with broken bones. Elsie and Fehrenbach were dead. The whole quarter of the city where the accident occurred is populated with working people, and every man, woman and child crowded to the scene of the disaster.

The disturbance created by the recent battle flag offered served one good purpose. It diverted attention from the President's awful crime of catching trout with angle worms.—Pittsburg Post.

The elevation of the temperature these long, lazy June days causes a dreary languor to be distilled throughout our physical organization—in other words, hot weather makes us weary.—Cin. Telegram.

"John Sherman has maintained a discreet silence since he made his bloody shirt speech at Springfield." The general impression is that John's speech was overloaded, and that it kicked him into silence.—Exchange.

Jay Gould presented thirty-five acres of land to the Mt. Vernon estate, where the remains of Washington lie.

The Crown Prince of Germany can only speak in a whisper, so serious is the condition of his throat.

The dog circus on the market lot, the past three days, furnished lots of fun for the small boys. The circus men stuck their tents last night, and like the Arabs, silently stole away.

The corner in wheat and coffee has been bursted and these articles have gone down to bed rock. You can now resume your coffee drinking.

LADIES, AVOID COSMETICS and rouges. Skin-success soap will give you healthy and rosy complexion.
